

90% of ASA, CSSA, and SSSA members read CSA News magazine, and the majority rate it an important member benefit and read every issue.

CSA News magazine is read by 10,000+ agronomic, crop, and soil scientists—the leaders in the field. Each month, ASA, CSSA, and SSSA members rely on CSA News magazine for the latest research, international perspectives, industry events and perspectives, and Society news—people, meetings, publications, career services, science policy, certification, and more.

Frequency

CSA News magazine is mailed to most U.S. and international members 12 times a year (undergraduate students and members residing in low-income or low-middle income countries as defined by the World Bank receive online access to a PDF).

Editorial Submissions

Each issue of CSA News magazine reflects the latest in what's happening in the agronomic, crop, and soil sciences, as well news related to the activities of the American Society of Agronomy, Crop Science Society of America, and Soil Science Society of America. Articles are organized into Science, News & Perspectives, and Career & Education. Submit press releases and announcements to our CSA News magazine staff at news@sciencesocieties.org.
